

Introduction

Following four consecutive years of success, the AHEPA and the University of Indianapolis, Athens Campus are again offering the Journey to Greece program, an unforgettable learning experience, to new and returning students in 2010. The Journey to Greece program, which is under the direction of Dr. James F. Dimitriou, PSP and is supervised by AHEPA officials has been specially designed to immerse young students in a wonderful learning experience celebrating Greek society and culture.

About the University of Indianapolis and its Athens Campus

Founded in Indiana in 1902, the University of Indianapolis chartered the Athens Campus in 1989. Located at the foot of the Acropolis, it is the only wholly owned branch campus of a US university operating in Greece. The University offers 42 undergraduate programs and 11 graduate programs in Athens.

The University of Indianapolis, Athens is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Further, prestigious accreditation bodies in their respective fields accredit the various schools, department and programs of the University.

The AHEPA Journey to Greece Program

Duration

The first program starts July 3 and runs for two weeks, ending July 16. The second session starts July 10 and runs until August 6. Discounts are offered to students opting to take both sessions and to students who are returning.

Courses

Classes celebrating Greek language, culture and history are offered each year providing both an unforgettable learning experience and up to nine transferable university credits (if students attend both sessions). Academic credit is transferred to a student's home institution by an official transcript issued by the University of Indianapolis.

Session 1

Students take the following course:

- Modern Greece

Session 2

Students choose two courses:

- Elementary Modern Greek
- Intermediate Modern Greek
- Greek Art & Archaeology
- Greek Myth & Religion
- Ancient Greek Games
- Modern Greek Politics & Foreign Relations

Courses incorporate visits to the archaeological sites and museums. Students will also benefit from use of the University Library, Computer lab, including internet access, and the magnificent University of Indianapolis Cultural Center located in the midst of the ancient ruins of Athens.

Accommodation

Students attending the program will be housed in very close proximity to the University in the Plaka area of Athens. The AHEPA Program Director and Counselors as well as University staff will be on hand to ensure the students' welfare.

Catering

Lunch is provided every weekday and breakfast and dinner are provided on excursions.

Excursions

Excursions, designed with learning in mind as much as having fun, form an integral part of the program.

Sessions 1 and 2

This year we have arranged for session 1 and 2 to overlap so that students from both sessions can enjoy a cruise in the Aegean Sea calling in at some of the most popular Greek islands, including Crete, and visiting Kusadasi in Turkey.

Visits will be made to Mykonos, Kusadasi, Patmos, Rhodes, Heraklion and Santorini
Plus

Session 2

Session 2 students will also enjoy a two Day Land Excursion: Delphi-Rio-Olympia-Lagadia-Epidavros-Corinth Canal

We plan many other activities for both sessions such as those that took place in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009:

- Embassy visit
- Archdiocese Visit
- Welcome Reception
- Pool Party
- Acropolis Visit
- Acropolis Museum Visit
- Benaki Museum Visit
- Archaeological Museum Visit
- Temple of Poseidon, Sounion
- Farewell Reception
